9. The winners will be notified by email or telephone on, or within 5 working days of the Closing Date. If they do not respond within 28 days of being notified of their win, their prize will be forfeited.
 10. The winners must provide a residential and email in order to claim their prize.
 11. Upon receipt of a Valid email address, the prizes will be sent to the winners by email within 28 days. The Charity accepts no responsibility for the prize being lost, damaged or delayed in the post.
 12. The prize is non-exchangeable, non-transferable and no cash alternative is offered.
 13. The Charity reserves the right to replace the prize with an alternative prize of equal or higher value if circumstances beyond the Charity's control makes it necessary to do so.
 14. The decision of the Charity regarding any aspect of the Competition is final and binding and no correspondence will be entered into about it.

15. The winners' names and counties can be obtained by sending an email to eidcards@onenationuk.org within 28 days of the Closing Date.

16. Participants are deemed to have accepted and agreed to be bound by these Terms and Conditions upon entry.

The Charity reserves the right to refuse entry or refuse to award the prize to anyone in breach of these Terms and Conditions.

17. Participants retain the copyright in their entries but grant the Charity a perpetual, worldwide, royalty-free, sub-licensable and assignable licence, to use the Work as the Charity may require, from time to time.

18. The Charity reserves the right to hold void, cancel, suspend, or amend the promotion or these Terms and Conditions where it becomes necessary to do so.

19. Insofar as is permitted by law, the Charity, its agents or distributors will not in any circumstances be responsible or liable to compensate the winner or accept any liability for any loss or damage occurring as a result of taking up the prize except where it is caused by the negligence of the Charity, its agents or distributors or that of their employees. Your statutory rights are not affected. For the avoidance of doubt, nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude the Charity's, its agents or distributors or that of their employees, liability for fraud, personal injury or death, after which investigation if found to have been howsoever caused by the Charity, its agents or distributors or that of their employees.

20. The winners may be asked to participate in publicity related to the Competition which may include the publication of their name and photograph in any media. The winners have the right to choose not to participate in publicity.

21. Personal data supplied during the course of this promotion will only be used for the purpose of administering this Competition. Parent's and guardian's personal details will only be used for marketing purposes by email, telephone, mobile phone or text, if we have permission to do so (you may have already done this if you have registered your details with us previously). Children's details will not be used for any other purpose. We may also send you marketing by mail in accordance with our Privacy policy.

22. The Charity reserves the right to make changes to these Terms and Conditions from time to time.

23. The Competition, and these Terms and Conditions, and any dispute or claim between the parties arising out of or in connection with it or its subject matter or formation (including non-contractual disputes or claims) shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the law of England and Wales. Each party irrevocably agrees that the courts of England and Wales shall have exclusive jurisdiction to settle any dispute or claim (including non-contractual disputes or claims) arising out of or in connection with the Competition and / or these Terms and Conditions, or their subject matter or formation.
